Co-founder & Director

Mark Chenery is a communications expert and trainer who works with mission driven organisations to incorporate a values-based approach to community engagement.

His background includes advertising and journalism and heading up the community engagement program of an international human rights organisation in Australia.

Since establishing Common Cause Australia in 2014, Mark and his colleagues have trained thousands of campaigners, communicators and fundraisers from Australia and beyond in the science of values and framing.

His research and training has changed the way many Australian and international mission driven organisations as well as government departments and agencies engage with the public on social justice, health and environmental issues.
